

Developing A Volunteer Transportation Program In Your Faith Community or Organization

Learn how to create a transportation program that promotes safety and reduces risk. You will learn successful strategies to recruit, train, and manage volunteer drivers as well as the essentials of risk management.

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

1:30 – 4:30 p.m.

PRISM

730 Florida Ave. So.
Golden Valley, MN 55426

Presenter: Courtney L. B. Whited
Director of PRISM Express Transportation

Who should attend: Volunteer transportation coordinators in congregations and other service organizations as well as other staff who would like to share this information with their congregation.

Cost: Free to congregations in St. Louis Park and Hopkins and in the West Metro Congregational Nurse Networking Group. For other organizations, the cost is $10 per person or $25 per agency. Class space limited to 40.

PREREGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. Please RSVP so enough notebooks can be prepared by September 5 to Joy Gordon at jgordon@jfcsmpls.org or at 952-542-4819.

Watch for upcoming training for volunteer drivers.

Sponsored by Senior Community Services, PRISM, NORC (Nurturing Our Retired Citizens), Jewish Family and Children's Service of Minneapolis and the National Center for Senior Transportation.